Safer Schools Newsletter

Secondary Edition Monday 13th July

Hi everyone, this is the last newsletter in the series for this academic year. Today we focus on being 'Out and About' as the summer holidays are about to begin.

We hope you have enjoyed reading our newsletters, and welcome any feedback to sspteam@norfolk.pnn.police.uk

Norfolk Constabulary Safer Schools Team

During these uncertain times, it is important for young people to look after their mental health. There is now one single place to access mental health advice and support for anyone under the age of 25 in Norfolk. There is no need for a referral, you can just get in touch straight away if you need help and support. They can also refer you on, should you need more specialist help. Please visit this link for more information:
